

EY Physical AI Engineering | Independent candidate materials

Russell Dudek

Executive Interview Questions | EY Physical AI Engineering

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania | 412.287.8640 | russelldudek@gmail.com linkedin.com/in/russelldudek | <https://russelldudek.github.io/EY/>

Discovery set

Ask where confidence is won or lost.

Questions designed to uncover the actual operating mandate.

Q1

Mandate

Identifies the real binding constraint rather than assuming the job description lists priorities in order.

Mandate

Reveals EY's definition of operating value and completion.

Decision rights

Clarifies where a manager integrates judgment without overriding specialist authority.

Decision rights

Surfaces the evidence gate and accountable authority.

Technical system

Targets the gap that a Reality Transfer Case may help make legible.

Technical system

Tests how physical uncertainty and software change are governed.

Listening discipline

Use the answer to update the candidate thesis. Do not turn every response into a pitch. Ask one follow-up that clarifies consequence, ownership or evidence.

EY Physical AI Engineering | Independent candidate materials

Russell Dudek

Executive Interview Questions | EY Physical AI Engineering

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania | 412.287.8640 | russelldudek@gmail.com linkedin.com/in/russelldudek | <https://russelldudek.github.io/EY/>

Discovery set

Ask where confidence is won or lost.

Questions designed to uncover the actual operating mandate.

Q2

Client adoption

Reveals whether adoption and sustainment are designed early or handled at handoff.

Client adoption

Connects human authority to retained use.

Practice leverage

Clarifies the practice's abstraction boundary.

Practice leverage

Tests whether learning compounds.

Manager scorecard

Reveals the actual role allocation and potential conflicts.

Manager scorecard

Invites an observable definition of success.

Listening discipline

Use the answer to update the candidate thesis. Do not turn every response into a pitch. Ask one follow-up that clarifies consequence, ownership or evidence.